Other teaching scenarios

If the way you teach is not included in this guide, contact the Centre for Teaching and Learning with details of your teaching scenario. It will not be possible to replicate all forms of teaching remotely e.g. practicals and laboratories (although that is being considered).

Improving our guidance

If you encounter any difficulties with any of the suggestions for teaching remotely, please phone the IT Service Desk (Tel: (01865) 6 12345). As well as resolving your problem, this will help us to improve our guidance.
